

How the Mazzei Fertilizer Injector Works

Mazzei® injectors are venturi-style, differential pressure injectors with internal mixing vanes. When a sufficient pressure differential is created between the inlet and outlet, the resulting vacuum draws the fertilizer up through the suction port, combines it with the incoming stream of water, and discharges the resulting mixture through the outlet.